One Giant Snack

No.6 · 2026

Pablo and Morris
live by a lake,
surrounded by books,
ideas and a few crumbs.

Pablo likes
understanding things.
Morris likes
trying them.

Their little spaceship
takes them far away—
even through time.

And there is always a home to come back to.

PABLO & MORRIS

One Giant Snack

20 July 1969.
Eagle lands on the Moon.

Neil Armstrong
and Buzz Aldrin
are inside.

And the sandwiches?

Several hours later...

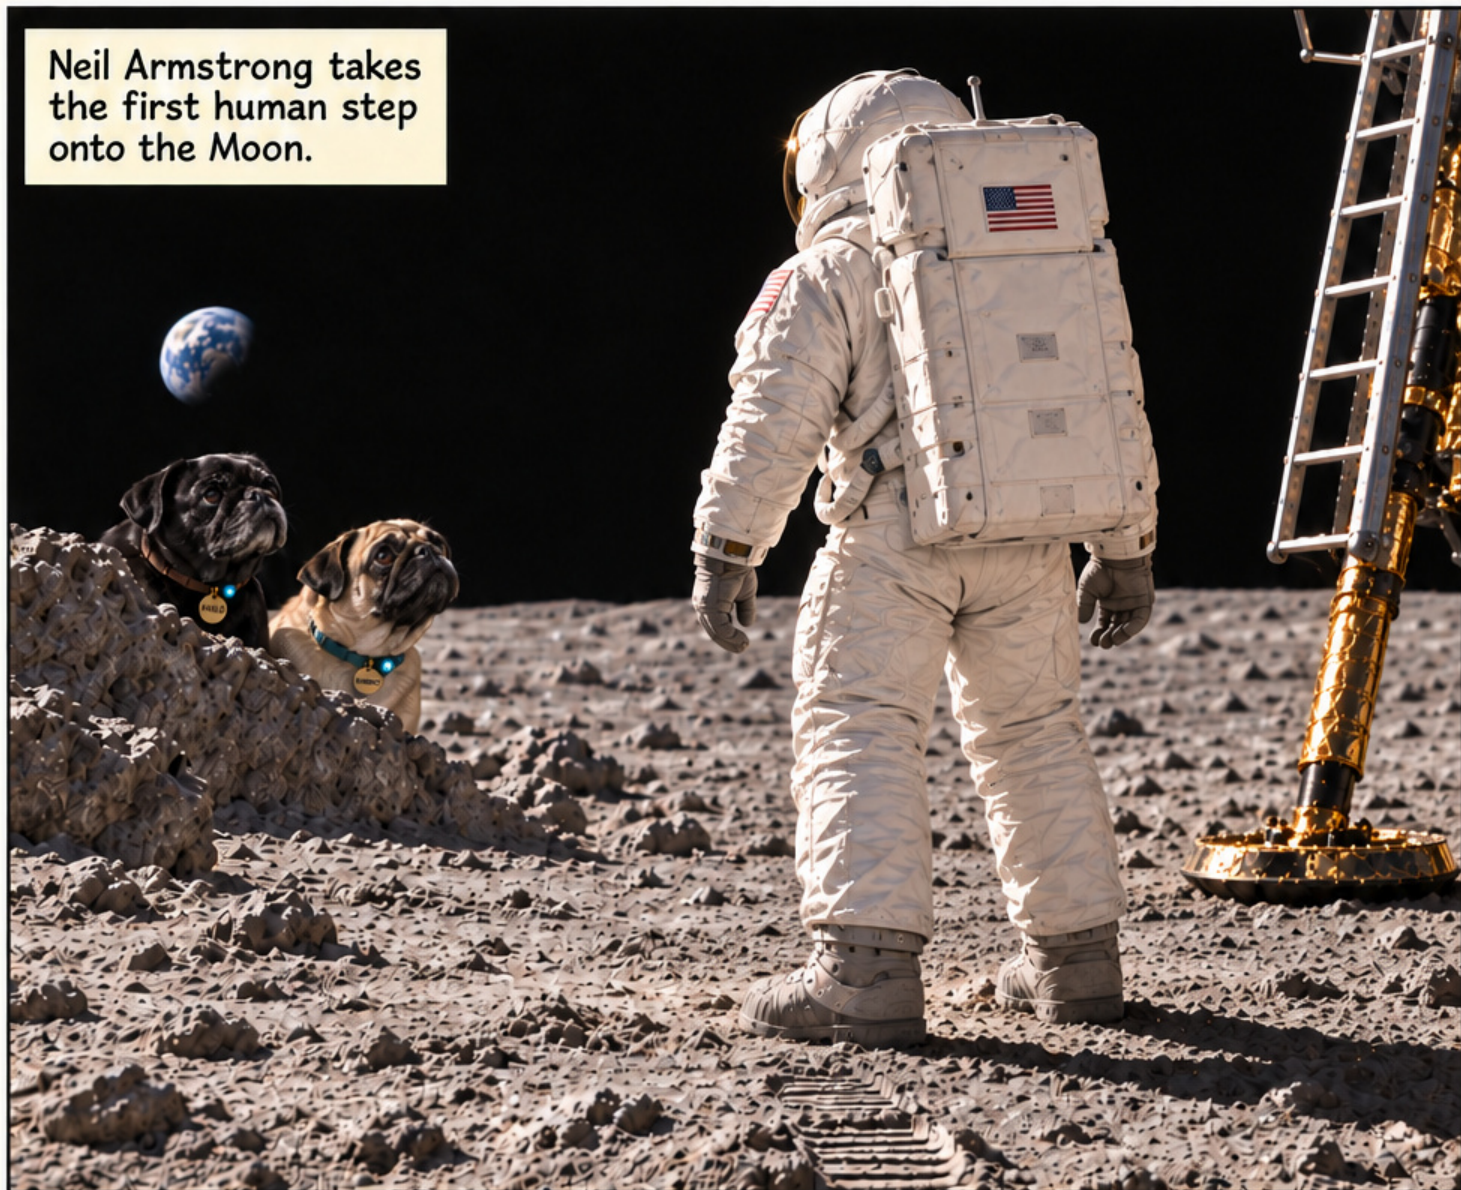

The collars can connect to their radios, too.

Someone is coming out.

Neil Armstrong takes the first human step onto the Moon.

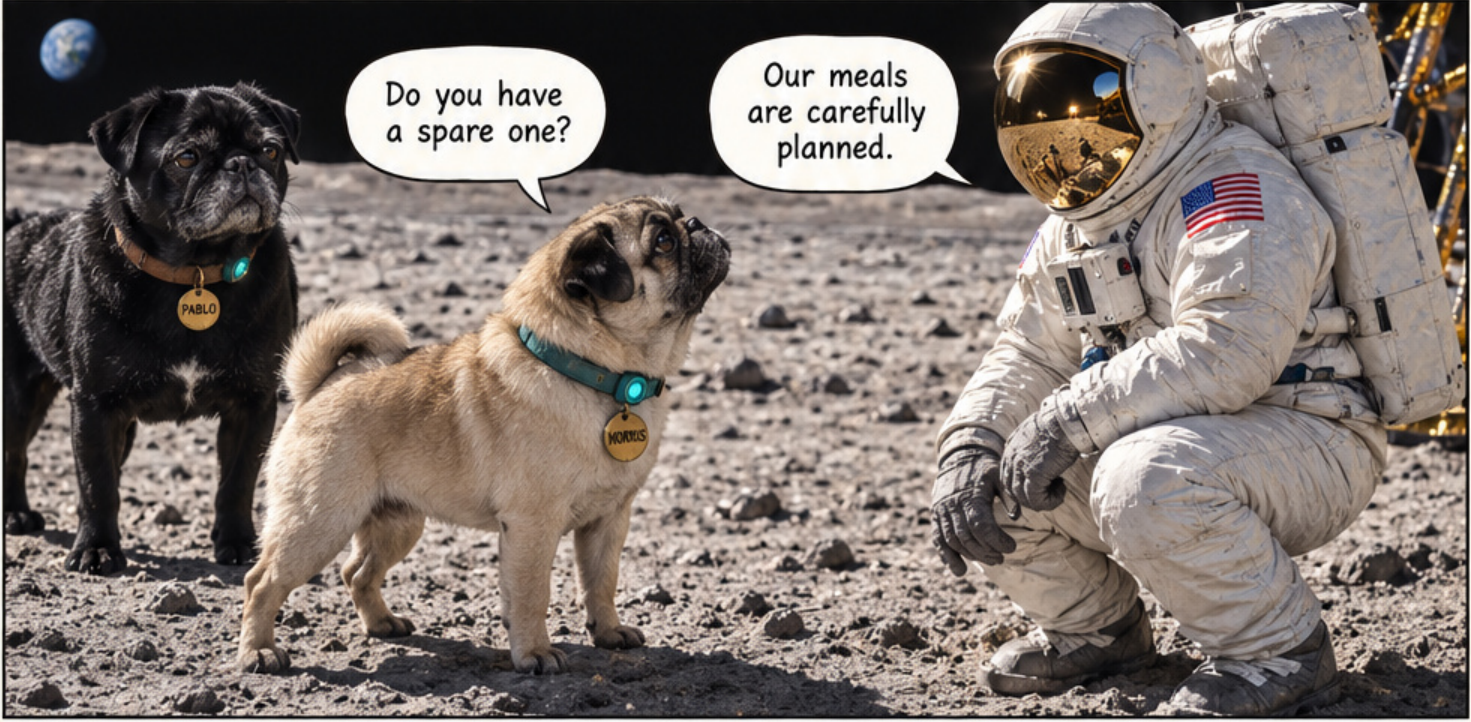

And we are here.

That really is a big moment.

After their snack...

Let's go back to our astronaut
friends.

Let's stop for a moment and look at Earth.

Now let's talk
to our friends
before they leave.

Everyone we love
is on that little world.

A REAL JOURNEY. AN IMAGINED ADVENTURE.

Apollo 11 landed on the Moon
on 20 July 1969.

Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin
walked on the surface.
Michael Collins stayed in lunar orbit.

Their lunar module was called Eagle.

Pablo and Morris travel through time.
Their protective collars come from the future,
where incredible technology gives them
air and warmth. In 1969, astronauts needed spacesuits on the Moon
